Dedication

Mr. Larry Stagen

No One . . .

. . . would be missed more than Mr. Stagen at Monday night yearbook meetings. No one is more willing than Mr. Stagen to work long and hard to meet final deadlines.

Mr. Stagen is not only the WACOH advisor, but he is also one of Washington's counselors. Always willing to advise and help students with their problems, Mr. Stagen becomes involved with each student. Mr. Stagen's dedication to his work and untiring efforts are rewarded with each problem solved and with each contented student.

For these and many other reasons, we, the WACOH staff and the students of WCHS, dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Stagen.

Mr. Stagen's good humor is shown by a quick smile for the photographer.

Mr. Stagen hard at work at his desk.

WaCoHi Students witnessed "Great Events in History" on October 17, 18, and 19. The big celebration began Thursday night with the Stunt Show. Kathy Trovillion was announced as Queen and she presented a rose from her bouquet to King Ron Meischner. Later, a bonfire blazed in the parking lot, and the Cheerleaders led a pep rally.

Washington Students were filled with the Homecoming Spirit, and the halls were filled with excited voices on Friday. Although we lost, the Panthers put up a spirited fight that night at Babcock Field. The half time show featuring the Band, Pantherettes, and Court Royalty was a highlight of the evening.

Homecoming Dance

The Homecoming Dance climaxed the festive weekend. The "Bushes" provided entertainment for the dance which was well-attended by alumni, teachers, and present students.

"Great Events in History" were re-created in the decorations. Coronation of Queen Kathy Trovillion and King Ron Meischner was held at 10 o'clock on the red, white, and blue stage. The evening remains a wonderful memory in the hearts of WaCoHi Students.

LOVE IS CONTAGIOUS, under the direction of Mr. Thomas, was a delightful comedy of a young girl from a Kansas farm who came to New York to live with her brother. However, she found out that life in a big city "sure is different."

Sally Winters, played by Pat Meagher, learned the ways of big city and aided in the "match-making" of several of her friends--only to find out that LOVE IS CONTAGIOUS.

On opening night the many hours of practice paid off.

Kris Chapin worked hard behind the scenes.

ALL BECAUSE OF AGATHA, was a highly imaginative comedy filled with bright, funny dialogue and a cast of thoroughly delightful characters. The play dealt with the hilarious plight of a young couple who moved into a centuries old house in Salem, Massachusetts, only to find that it was haunted by a distressingly capricious, maddenly, tenacious, yet undeniably appealing witch, which was played by Toni Ehrich.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. Thomas, director, and the cast and crew members for their fine production.

Many long, hard hours were spent practicing.

The 1969 Prom Court consisted of Queen Pat Meagher, King Lon Bradle, Sue Baer, Steve McKimson, Molly Kane, Fred Townson, Scotti Waddell, and Chris White.

On May 3, 1969, "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream" came true at the Junior-Senior Prom "I Left My Heart in San Francisco." The climax of the evening was the coronation of our royal couple, Queen Pat Meagher and King Lon Bradle. This memorable night will be a cherished dream for all.

Players watch two points being made or prepare themselves for a rebound.

Even though the year for the Panther's basketball team was unsuccessful, they fought very hard against their opponents. Long hard hours of practice went into each of their games.

Cross-country is a grueling race of approximately two miles. Although it is one of the least publicized sports at WaCoHi, it has had an exceptional team for the second year in a row. Our team, under the capable leadership of Coach Melvin Roustio, came in fifth in the District Meet, with the assistance of our top runners, John Armstrong, Denny Springhart, Ken Salemi, Don Guimond, Alan Wilkerson, and Dennis Guimond. The team, with the aid of these runners, should look forward to another great season next year.

Cheerleaders

Both the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders led the excited fans through quite a year. The spirit of the cheerleaders helped the fans show good sportsmanship, win or lose. The Varsity cheerleaders attended summer cheerleader camp at I.S.U. during the summer, and brought back new ideas for cheers and pep rallies. The spirit of our cheerleaders helped everyone want to get up and cheer for our Panthers. The cheerleaders devoted much of their time for the betterment of school spirit.

What else could make Washington students stand in line?

The WaCoHi

Every Monday evening after the halls of WaCoHi have cleared, students of the Yearbook Staff gather to work on the best yearbook ever. Led capably by Kris White, Editor-in-Chief; Toni Ehrich, layout; Janet Roth, Business; and Linda Trigg, copy, they strived successfully to meet the deadlines on time. But, of course, nothing would have been done without the efforts of our fabulous advisor, Mr. Stagen.

Being on the staff meant a lot of hard work, but we still could smile.

School Newspaper

The first year for the school newspaper, PARAPHERNALIA, has begun in a blaze of glory. The paper, edited by Judy Marshall, received a First Class Rating in the national competition. The three issues were looked forward to eagerly by the students. Under the guidance of Mrs. Kallio were the Associate Editor, Pam Ayers; Exchange Editor, Sharon Mishler; Business Manager, Dave Heller; Feature Editor, Carol Stalnaker; Associate Business Manager, Diane Rider; Society Editor, Tari Newman; Sports Editor, Bob Scherer; and Photographer, Steve Koch.

Student Council

This has been another eventful year for Student Council. Under the supervision of Mr. Smith, much was accomplished. Some of their money raising ideas included selling holly at Christmas time and selling Panther stickers. They sponsored Homecoming and helped get our new Student Council sign. As usual, the Student Council had a successful year.

Spanish Club

The main purpose of Spanish Club is to further the members knowledge of Spanish speaking cultures. Throughout the year members of Spanish Club engage in several activities such as a Chilli supper, Chicago trip, and Christmas party.

Mr. Thomas has been caught unexpectedly at the Chilli supper.

Just a little socializing at the picnic.

Drama Club's first play of the season was "Love Is Contagious."

Don Karcher was a member of the hard-working lighting crew.

Drama Club endeavors to provide a better appreciation of all areas of theater: acting, staging, directing, etc. Two plays were given this year, "Love Is Contagious" and "All Because of Agatha." Both were a big success. Through these two plays, everyone in Drama Club has a chance to get involved in some aspect of the play. The main purpose of Drama Club is to stimulate interest in Dramatic Arts.

WE, THE EDITORS . . .

. . . of WaCoHi, would like to thank everyone who helped to make this yearbook the best yet. Special thanks go to Mr. Stagen, our advisor, Mr. Gardner, our Yearbook representative, Mr. Foote, our photographer, and our faithful yearbook staff members.

We would like to wish next year's editors the best of luck, and we hope that they meet their deadlines as successfully as we have.

And to you, the student body, we hope that our efforts have been worthwhile and that as you look through these pages, you will recall the fun and profitable year that has just passed.

Dear Peggy not killing Thank for killing me was a little freshman.
Remember my locker. DISASTER!

Patty
P.S. Who said I had a big head?

Dear Peggy -
always remember Pamela (to whom we were mommy), Mike
(the boy I pitied), Carol
(the card playing girl) & all those kids who said we were about our age! (To these we showed our drivers licenses) Heeey thought I cannot become them, because I've seen handed children's menus in restaurants!! I'm other words always remember my experiences as those delightful Stripers or Candy Strippers!!!
Candy

Dear Peggy (Chutalung),
Remember the good days
we had together in German with Mike & all the others.
You're a very sweet girl.
So stay that way. Good luck in whatever you choose to do!
Love,
Krispina '90

P. S. I remember, and the
 we had walking home, from school. Hope you enjoy coming back to school as much as I did. Have fun in your last 2 years and 4 years in college. You'll probably be!
 in college. Yeah. Love
 Mary

I have been thinking about you very much lately and how well
 you are getting along.
 I hope
 you are happy
 and healthy.
 Love,
 Mary
